SECTION II

Please answer the following on a separate sheet.

On a separate sheet of paper, please respond clearly and concisely to the following four statements:

1. In one short paragraph, please explain why you seek a position on the Honor Council.
2. In no more than 500 words, please describe the role that honor and academic integrity has played in your life.
3. The Honor Council is a student run organization that requires a substantial time commitment. Considering the activities you listed above, please explain how you will be able to find the time to participate and contribute as a Member of the Honor Council.
4. Adjudicating Honor Code violations is only one function of the Honor Council. An equally important function is the continuous education of the University community about issues concerning honor, academic integrity, and ethical values. How can you personally make a contribution to the Honor Council's public awareness initiatives, and what practical suggestions can you offer for improving these initiatives?
